

Chemtrade has a dedicated logistics department with various sub-departments ensuring a proficient door to door service for the distribution of chemicals , whether for imports or exports. The sub-departments include : freight forwarding , customs clearance , inland transportation, and governmental department relations. The company has long standing associations , going back to 30 years , with world wide logistics companies , container shipping lines and bulk chemical shipping tankers. These mature relationships have been developed over the 30 years and based resulting in the full faith and trust in the integrity and reliability of Chemtrade and its shareholders.